A POUND of facts is worth oceans of theories. More infants are successfully raised on the Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk than upon any other food. Infant Health is a valuable pamphlet for mothers. Send your address to the New York Condensed Milk Company, New York.

WOMEN suffering from rheumatism should use Minard's Liniment. Mrs. Prathers was not able to sweep her own room, but after a few applications of Minard's Liniment, she could do so with ease.

HOOD GIVES GOOD HEALTH.—"I have used Hood's Sarsaparilla for fifteen years and would not be without it in my house. I have ordered it for many people troubled with diseases arising from impure blood and always with the best results. I owe my present good health to the use of Hood's Sarsaparilla." A. L. Young, 2,562 Washington St., Roxbury, Mass.

For Dyspepsia

Use Horsford's Acid Phosphate.

Dr. J. R. SCHWARTZ, Harrisburg, Pa., says: "I have used it in dyspepsia with charming effect, and am well pleased with it."

COMPARTMENT CASES.

We name the lowest prices on these book cases of any furniture house in this country.

Here is a new triple-tier Book Cabinet, each closet entirely separate, with separate door, and having a capacity of 100 volumes each, or 300 volumes in the entire cabinet.

The construction is of solid oak throughout, with fifteen adjustable shelves. The top is made to overhang, giving a depth of about 14 inches for ornaments. The cabinet stands 5 feet in height, leaving ample space for pictures above.

A good division of one's library might be Poetry, Fiction and Miscellaneous; or History (to include Biography), Fiction and Miscellaneous (to include poetry.) The drawers are for charts, maps or photographs.

BIOGRAPHICAL.

REV. DAVID BRENNER.

Who died in Boxford, Dec. 6, at the age of sixty-seven years, ten months, was born in Keith, Scotland, but came to America when a lad and received his education at Dartmouth College. Besides pastorates at Rockport and Plymouth, Mass., Derry, N. H., and serving as stated supply in a few other places, he held a position in the United States Agricultural Department for several years and was chaplain for the Massachusetts legislature two years. His last stated supply was at Hawley. During the Franco-Prussian war he was imprisoned in the Bastille, by mistake, as a spy, but released, through the efforts of our American minister, with profuse apologies. He was a trustee of Pinkerton Academy; a man of great amiability and other personal graces of character, and his life was a most useful one.

REV. HENRY M. VOORHEES

Died in Claremont, Cal., Nov. 20, where he had been living since September. He was an ordained preacher in the Dutch Reformed Church until within three years, when he removed to Escondido and served the church there until failing health necessitated removal to Claremont and relinquishment of ministerial work. But his short term of service was marked by blessed results and the nobility of his character won him many friends on the Pacific coast. He leaves a wife and three children.

THE CONGREGATIONALIST

Boston Thursday 3 January 1895

WILLIAM CAREY, MISSIONARY TO INDIA.

Born, Aug. 17, 1761; died, June 9, 1824.

IT is inconsistent for ministers to please themselves with thoughts of a numerous auditory, cordial friends, a civilized country, legal protection, affluence, splendour, or even a competency. The slights and hatreds of men, and even pretended friends, gloomy prisons and tortures, the society of barbarians of uncouth speech, miserable accommodations in wretched wildernesses, hunger and thirst, nakedness, weariness and painfulness, hard work and but little worldly encouragement should rather be the objects of their expectation. Thus the apostles acted in the primitive times, and endured hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ; and though we, living in a civilized country, where Christianity is protected by law, are not called to suffer these things while we continue here, yet I question whether all are justified in staying here, while so many are perishing without means of grace in other lands.—From Carey's Inquiry into the Obligations of Christians to Use Means for the Conversion of the Heathens, 1792.
